L7 ὅσα ἔχει (Mt 13:44). Textual variant: N-A has πάντα before the phrase ὅσα ἔχει.		[And he parabled to them a parable saying,] “To what will I compare the Kingdom of Heaven? To a hidden treasure in a field, which a man found and hid, and in his joy went and sold everything he had to buy that field.”
		Dynamic Translation of Hebrew Reconstruction [Then Yeshua told them this parable:] “What comparison can I make to illustrate the worth of belonging to my band of disciples? It’s like a man who stumbled upon buried treasure in a field. What did he do? He reburied it, and in his excitement he sold everything he owned to get enough money to buy the field and obtain the treasure.”

L12 ἐμπόρῳ (Mt 13:45). Textual variant: N-A reads ἀνθρώπῳ ἐμπόρῳ. L12 μαργαρίτας (Mt 13:45). Textual variant: N-A reads μαργαρίτας. L13 πολύτιμον μαργαρίτην (Mt 13:46). Textual variant: N-A reads πολύτιμον μαργαρίτην.		Again he said, "To what will I compare the Kingdom of Heaven? To a merchant looking for pearls of fine quality. When he found a valuable pearl, he went and sold everything he had to buy it."

		He said once more, "What other comparison can I make to illustrate the worth of belonging to my band of disciples? It's like a merchant who spent his life buying and selling rare pearls. What did he do when he chanced upon a priceless pearl? He sold everything he owned to get enough money to buy it."
